THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1866.

IN the 11th District of Pennsylvania Mr. H. B. Beardslee, who has just finished a term in the State Senate, is quietly trying to succeed Mr. Philip Johnson in Congress. Mr. Johnson has held the place three terms, without personal popularity, abilities, or anything else except intense partizanship to recommend him. His advantages consisted in the fact that, excepting Judge Packer, of Carbon county, there is not a Democrat in the district of marked position or talent. Pike county now claims the honor of furnishing the member, but has no competent man to offer, and, as usual, the Democrats are in a wrangle. Beardslee belongs in Wayne; sustains a good character, and has more brains than any other person of his party in that county. He came very near getting the nomination some years ago; and may succeed now.

On the Republican side, if a candidate shall be run, it will simply be a matter of form. Most excellent material exists, but the chances are hopeless.

THE report is contradicted that in consequence of impending war in Germany, American securities are there discredited. The report had all reasonable probabilities against it to begin with. The indications of war would naturally lead people to hold on to securities depending for their value upon causes beyond the reach of the anticipated disruption.

A REPUBLICAN member of Congress from this State, and who is also a candidate for re-election, is trying to defeat himself by distributing large numbers of Mr. DOOLITTLE's and COWAN's speeches among his constituents. If he succeeds in getting permission to stay at home, he will have occasion to quarrel with no body but himself.

IN the 19th district of this State Judge Schofield is having some opposition for renomination for Congress. He belongs in Warren county. Mr. Benson, of Erie county, and Mr. Souther, of Elk county, have been named in competition with him. Still, we think Mr. Schofield will not be laid aside.

AT York, a few evenings ago, the Democrats mobbed the printing office of the True Democrat, a republican journal. Cause—the publication of a card signed by some "boys in blue," repudiating connection with the Clymer Club.

GENERAL NEWS.

—The Editorial Association of New Jersey have made an arrangement for an extensive excursion. Railroad companies will suffer.

—Benjamin Hughes, of Mount Holly, N. J., was killed a few days ago by the accidental discharge of an old gun which he was endeavoring to wrest from a companion.

—Wm. DeVarney, a waiter at the Astor House, New York, tumbled down a stair-way, one night last week, and cut his throat with the glass of a broken tumbler. The jugular vein was severed, and it is reported the man cannot recover.

—It is reported that cruelties and gross injustice are again being practiced toward the freedmen in various portions of Tennessee, and within the past week, in several cases, General Fisk has been obliged to resort to military interference for their protection.

—A man in Philadelphia has been sued for $25,000 for a breach of promise. His defense is—and it ought to clear him—that he was ready to marry her last winter, but she kept putting it off, and as she weighs 285 pounds he prefers not to marry during the warm weather.

—The Union campaign in Indiana was opened at Indianapolis on Tuesday night by a grand meeting. Two hundred guns were fired, huge bonfires burned in various parts of the city, and immense crowds listened to addresses from Governor Morton and other prominent speakers.

—Says the European Times: Nothing can show more strongly the adaptability of the Americans for all pursuits than the ease with which all the men of note in the late war have slided from the military into commercial life, and the same may be said of the great body of the soldiers on each side.

—On one little street in Galena, Illinois, and within the space of four blocks, were at one time the business places of six private citizens, now known as Lieutenant General Grant, Major General John E. Smith, Major General Rawlins, Major General Chetlain and Brigadier General J. A. Maltby.

—The Boston Journal says that the statue of Hon. Edward Everett has been completed in clay by Mr. Story, and that it will be ready for dedication in May. It is to be cast in bronze at Munich, but should the impending war prove of long continuance the arrangements now made may possibly be interfered with.

—Great excitement prevails in Fayetteville, in the town of Manlius, Onondaga county, N. Y., over the supposed poisoning of more than forty persons in that village. Reports were in circulation that the cholera had broken out there, but upon investigation the cause of the sickness was traced to some cheese sold by a merchant in the village. The deaths resulting from the poisoning already number two, while several others are not expected to survive.

—A Parisian letter-writer describes the Emperor as follows: He is of much lower stature than I had thought, and inclined to be fleshy; is quite grey, and wears no other beard than a moustache and imperial. He has a large and remarkably fine shaped head and bright eye. He was very plainly clad in a pepper-and-salt citizens' dress, with silk hat and white silk gloves. He returned, in a good natured, graceful manner, the frequent unostentatious greetings of the passers-by.

—A Springfield, Ill., lawyer is preparing a case for the United States Supreme Court, which attacks the constitutionality of the income tax. The contestant reports upwards of fifty-two thousand dollars income the past year, but, under protest, he declines to pay the tax, and will, when the usual compulsory action is invoked, ask injunction from Judge Davis to restrain the Government official from collecting. Thus the question will be brought squarely to the consideration of the courts.

—A lady at Atlanta, a few days ago, poisoned three sick children by giving them laudanum, supposing it to be paregoric. Before the mistake was discovered they were too far gone to save their lives. The lady is rich, and these children would have been her heirs. Foul play is believed to have occurred, and suspicion rests on a young man, a distant relative of the lady, to whom her property will now descend. He is thought to have changed the bottle of paregoric for laudanum, knowing it would be administered to them. No proof, however, exists strong enough to justify his arrest.

—A strange spectacle was recently presented in a Prussian town, when the levies of troops were about starting. The train was ready, but the wives of the soldiers opposed its departure, throwing themselves in their despair on the rails in front of the locomotive. Recourse to violence could not be employed. What was to be done? The station-master proposed to the women to accompany their husbands, but in separate carriages. The poor creatures consented; but when the train started, the carriages with the women did not move. The station-master had had them detached, but wisely took care to get away before the discovery was made.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
MUSHROOM IMITATIONS.
Success is the "prevalent cradle" of innumerable humbugs. No sooner had HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made their mark in the world than up sprang a host of imitations, and as the fame of the great restorative grew and spread, the pestiferous crop of poisonous mockeries thickened. But the true medicine has lived them down. One by one they have disappeared. When the bellows of puffery, which kept alive the feeble fire of their borrowed reputation, ceased to blow, they ceased to live, and thus they continue to come and go. Meanwhile, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, the great protective and remedial tonic of the age, have progressed in popularity with each succeeding year. Their success as a means of preventing and curing the diseases resulting from malaria, unwholesome water, and all unhealthy climatic influence, has been boundless; and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Fever and Ague, General Weakness and Debility, and all complaints originating in Indigestion, they are now admitted to be superior to any other preparation ever advertised or prescribed. From the home market, to which a few years ago they were confined, their sale has been extended into every State in this Union, over the whole of South and Central America, Mexico, the West Indies, the Sandwich Islands, Australia, China and Japan. Home and foreign testimony continue to show that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are the most remarkable tonic and invigorant now before the world.

Hostetter's Bitters
Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

A COUPLE of anecdotes of the visit of the South Carolina Railway delegation to this city are worth relating. General Sherman happened to be here and was invited to drop in where the South Carolinians were being entertained, and give them a call. The General said all his time was fully occupied, as he proposed to go to St. Louis by the next train, and besides, said he, "tell the gentlemen from South Carolina that I called upon and did not find them at home, and that they now owe me a call." Mr. Trenholm was duly informed that an old friend of his was in the city who perhaps would have called upon him, but had some time since endeavored to see him and could not find him at home; and indeed he was led to believe that Mr. Trenholm had purposely avoided seeing him. Mr. T. could not remember any conduct of his that would justify an accusation of discourtesy of that kind, and inquired what the name of the friend might be. He was told it was "a Mr. Sherman." "Mr. Sherman," said Trenholm, and upon his word he had quite forgotten, there must be some mistake. The name of Major General William T. Sherman being mentioned, the South Carolinians admitted they had heard of him, and some of them recollected they were not at home when he passed that way.

The other incident is that of an exchange of views between an Ohio politician who has devoted himself to the preaching of the political gosple according to Calhoun, and one of the prominent citizens of Charleston. The Ohioan indulged in eloquent indorsements of the doctrine of State Sovereignty and the right of secession. The South Carolinian replied: "I have been accustomed to hear that sort of doctrine advocated on the stump. It sounded well. I believe in it fully. But when we came to try it it did not work well. The theory was pretty, but the practice was destructive. We do not want any more of it in our generation. We have buried that." The Ohio Democrat insisted, however, that no tomb could contain the immortal; that State Sovereignty as South Carolina had interpreted it would get up like John Barleycorn. The South Carolinian did not seem to be convinced. He had seen it, and was satisfied. So he shook his head incredulously as an Ohioan proclaimed the resurrection of the rebellion.—Cincinnati Gazette.

AN OBEDIENT PRIVATE.—During the war a good story used to be told of a private in one of the Massachusetts regiments—the 14th, I think. It seems that his captain was noted for his love of good things, and one day told the high private to go for some oysters, also giving him, in his usual jocose way, the command:

"Don't come back without them."

Off went the man, and no more was seen of him for several days, and the indignant and disappointed captain reported him as a deserter, and gave him up as a "lost child." But lo! after the lapse of nine days, the captain beheld his reported deserter, Bailey, coming into camp, leading in a train of four wagons loaded with oysters. Approaching and respectfully saluting the amazed captain, Bailey reported:

"Here are your oysters, captain; could not find any at Alexandria, so I chartered a schooner, and made a voyage to Fortress Monroe and Norfolk for them. There's about two hundred bushels; where do you want them?"

Bailey, it seems, really did make the trip, hired his men, and sold oysters enough in Georgetown, before reporting, to pay all expenses and leave him a profit of a hundred and fifty dollars.

The two hundred bushels were divided among the regiment, and Bailey returned to his duty as if nothing had transpired.

—The population of Baltimore is now estimated at 300,000, and its trade and commerce are represented to be in a most flourishing condition.

FROM EUROPE.

The German War.

HOSTILITIES ACTUALLY COMMENCED.

The Atlantic Cable Finished,

NEW YORK, June 27.—The steamship Java, from Liverpool 16th, via Queenstown 17th, arrived this evening.

The Federal Diet having, on the 14th, by a vote of 9 to 6, agreed to the Austrian proposal for the mobilization of the federal army, Prussia, agreeably to previous notice, carried out her threat to consider it as an act of hostility on the part of those States which supported it, and on the following day commenced war by sending troops into Saxony and Hanover. It is also rumored that Austrian troops entered Saxony; not confirmed, but believed that Benedick would immediately move to attack the Prussians. The Emperor of Austria, in a speech to the Vienna Common Council, said nothing remained but the sword, and after the action of the Federal Diet, the Prussian representative protested against it as unconstitutional. He said Prussia considered the Confederation dissolved, and immediately withdrew from the Diet.

The Austrian Representative moved and the Diet resolved, that the federal diet was indissoluble.

Great commotion and financial depression exists throughout Germany.

Baron Ricasoli is forming a new Italian ministery.

La Marmora goes to the camp with the King as Minister without a portfolio.

The news from other places is unimportant.

The Atlantic cable is finished and the Great Eastern leaves Sheerness on the 30th of June.

The La France believes the rumors of the intended abdication of Maximilian is unfounded.

LATEST PER JAVA.—Saturday Evening, June 16.—The action of the American Government towards the Fenians in the United States gives general satisfaction.

The London Times to-day eulogizes the Washington government, and says: It would be impossible to exaggerate the good faith, the friendliness, the sincerity and the regard for mutual obligations which have prompted these energetic and decisive measures. The American Government has acted in a manner which even exceeds anything that could reasonably have been expected from the most friendly nation.

The article then expresses gratification that such distinguished officers as Generals Grant and Meade should have been sent to the scene and says these energetic acts of genuine friendship will be long and cordially remembered. The Fenians are almost entitled to thanks for having given the Americans an occasion for displaying their friendliness and good feeling.

At the closing of this dispatch, there is no news of any collision having yet occurred in Germany.

A Prague telegram, of the 16th, says the Prussians occupy Loban and Zeittan, and menace Schuenditz and Zeity.

The railway between Riersa and Dresden has been destroyed, and passenger and postal communication between Prussia and Saxony is stopped.

The Crown Princess of Saxony proceeds to Vienna.

A Frankfort dispatch says Prince Charles, of Bavaria, will be appointed commander-in-chief of the federal army. It was asserted at Paris that the proceedings of the Federal Diet had determined several of the powers who signed the treaty of Vienna of 1865, to declare that in their opinion articles 54 and 63 of that treaty, which form part of the European International law, have been violated. The Austrians had interrupted all lines of communication, on their side of the Po and Mincio.

Liverpool June 17.—The Federal war vessels Augusta, Miartinawah, and Ashuelot arrived at Queenstown on the evening of the 16th.

The entry of the Prussians into Saxony is fully confirmed. Prussia having previously declared war, the entry of the Austrians is hourly expected.

The Paris Presse publishes a report that the first engagement took place near Leipsig on the 16th, but the rumor is not confirmed.

The Diet held an extraordinary meeting on the 16th to decide on the motion by Saxony that Austria and Bavaria are requested to adopt immediately such measures as were necessitated by the Prussian invasion.

Prussia has issued a declaration to the Great Powers justifying the invasion, on the ground that the decision of the Diet on the 14th broke up the Confederation, and the law of self-preservation had compelled Prussia to secure herself against the neighboring States in open or concealed hostility; that she had previously offered conditional alliance, which was rejected.

Paris Bourse flat on the 16th. Rentes closed at 62, preferred ex-dividend.

The Sunday papers say that the reform bill and the ministry will be decided to-morrow. The conservatives are determined to attempt the defeat of the government.

Large Cargo of Cigars—Testimonial to Wm. Lloyd Garrison—The Cotton Crop.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The steamer Moro Castle which arrived at this port to-day from Havana, has six millions segars on freight, the largest quantity ever shipped to this port. The importers doubtless are anxious to avoid the impending higher tariff.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, June 27, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Anthony introduced a bill to establish certain post routes between the United States and Europe, and to regulate the transportation of mails thereon, and reduce the expenses thereof, which was referred to the Committee on Postoffices and Postmasters.

Mr. Wade, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, reported a bill to repeal the act to retrocede the city of Alexandria, to the State of Virginia. The object of the bill is to make Alexandria a part of the District of Columbia.

Messrs. Sherman, Wilson and Gaies were appointed a Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate on the army appropriation bill.

Mr. Sherman called up a bill to aid in the construction of telegraph lines, and to secure to the Government the use of the same for postal, military and other purposes.

Mr. Grimes moved to amend the first section by striking out the words "That the National Telegraph Corporation, organized under the law of the State of New York, April 16th, 1866, shall have the right, &c.," and insert in place thereof "That any telegraph company now organized or authorized to be organized under the laws of any State of this Union shall have the right, etc."

Mr. Sherman spoke in opposition to the proposed amendment.

Mr. Brown, in the course of some remarks, alluding to the recent report of the Postmaster General on the subject of telegraphing, said that in his report the Postmaster General had shown himself utterly incompetent for the position he holds. His report was made up in a great part of communications from persons interested in the great monopoly that now controls the telegraphing of this country. He (the Postmaster General) had inflicted more discredit on himself in this connection than perhaps had transpired with regard to any officer of the Government. Men in his position heretofore had striven to advance the public interests, but the Postmaster General had stood in the way of a needed reform.

Mr. Sherman regretted that Mr. Brown should have made such a personal attack upon Mr. Dennison, whom he (Sherman) knew to have the public interest at heart. Mr. Dennison did not believe that the plan suggested by Mr. Brown was feasible at the present time, but was favorable to anything that promised relief from the present telegraph monopoly.

Mr. Doolittle moved to postpone the subject until to-morrow.

The Senate, on motion of Mr. Edmunds, concurred in the House amendments to the bill regulating the transportation of nitro glycerine.

Mr. Morrill called up the Senate bill to regulate the elective franchise in the District of Columbia. It provides that every male person except paupers and persons under guardianship, of the age of twenty-one years and upward, who have not been convicted of any infamous crime, and who is a citizen of the United States, and has resided in the district for the term of six months, shall be entitled to vote without distinction of color. Any person whose duty it is to receive votes, and who shall refuse the vote of any person who is qualified under this act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or to imprisonment not more than one year, or to both fine and imprisonment. Any person who shall interfere to prevent a qualified elector from voting shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to a fine of one thousand dollars and imprisonment for thirty days. A registry of voters is also provided for.

Mr. Stewart moved to postpone the present and all pending orders and take up the bill to regulate the sale and occupation of mineral lands, but subsequently withdrew his motion.

Mr. Morrill's amendment, as modified, was rejected by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Anthony, Cragin, Edmunds, Fessenden, Foster, Harris, Kirkwood, Morrill, Poland, Pomeroy, Sherman, Trumbull, Wade, Willey and Williams—15.

Nays—Brown, Buckalew, Conner, Davis, Grimes, Guthrie, Hendrick, Howard, Howe, Morgan, Norton, Nye, Ramsey, Sprague, Stewart, Sumner, Van Winkle, Wilson and Yates—19.

Mr. Willey moved to amend that all actual residents shall have the right to vote.

Pending the discussion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

The consideration of the tax bill was resumed.

Mr. Morrill said the general purpose of the Committee of Ways and Means had been to follow the votes of the House on all questions debated and acted on by the House. The most important amendment was in regard to cotton. The House, by a very large and decisive vote put the tax at five cents per pound, and the Senate had reduced it to two cents. He, for one, much preferred to have the tax five cents; and, at all events, it should be nothing less than three cents. He believed that it would inflict no injury on the people of the South, but that they would be earnestly in favor of the reduction of the tax from five to two cents. It would make a sad hole in the revenues of the Government.

Mr. Raymond inquired what would be the probable amount of the diminution in revenue of the tax on cotton were it reduced to two per cent.

Mr. Morrill gave the estimate at twenty-seven millions.

Mr. Raymond inquired, further, what the diminution would be with the tax at three per cent.

Mr. Morrill estimated it at eighteen millions. He went on to speak about the tobacco amendment, and declared his opinion that a tax of twenty cents per pound was little enough. In regard to the amendment allowing gas companies to add the tax to the price of gas, where such price is fixed by law, he thought a refusal to concur in it would be a species of hardship and tyranny which the House would not like to be responsible for.

Mr. Griswold expressed concurrence with the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means on the question of tax on cotton. When the subject was under discussion before in the House, he had stated that at twenty-five cents a pound American cotton would be used in England in preference to cotton of other countries. The gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. Hooper) had demurred to that statement. He now gave as his authority for it the member of Parliament from Carlisle, a large Manchester cotton spinner, and the London Chronicle of April 7th, 1866.

Mr. Hooper, of Massachusetts, thought the sources of information rather suspicious, as that great cotton spinner might be interested in the growth of cotton in India, and would, in that case, prefer to have American cotton taxed five cents a pound or more.

Mr. Griswold expressed his belief that England would gladly consume three millions of bales of American cotton at a price not less than twenty-five cents a pound. No branch of industry could so well contribute to the national revenue.

Mr. Kasson thought he (Griswold) had entirely overlooked two things, that accommodations in England had been exhausted during the war, and consequently was in extra demand at the first opportunity, and that the tax would have to be borne entirely by the people of this country. Under this tax and with a drawback on manufactured goods exported, the goods would be sold cheaper abroad than at home. The profits of manufacture would come not from the foreign but the domestic consumer. He was informed that, at the present cost of labor, cotton could not be produced at less than fifteen or sixteen cents a pound, and a tax of five cents on that would be equal to 33⅓ per cent.

Mr. Stevens said that any man who had studied the history of soils, climates and productions, must know that America could produce cotton at less than half the cost of its production than in other countries. If the cost of producing it in this country were thirty cents a pound, it would be all bought. A tax of five cents a pound would not therefore stop the sale of a pound of it, neither would a tax of ten cents, if Congress had been wise enough to adopt the Constitutional Amendment. He had proposed to levy an export duty of ten cents a pound on cotton. It would have produced a revenue of from two to three millions of dollars, and thus the country would have got some little pecuniary compensation from those who had caused the mighty debt of the nation, but as that was not done, Congress should levy the tax of five cents.

Mr. Banks advocated the tax of five cents on cotton as one of the means of deriving a revenue to pay the debts of the Government. Before the cotton crop of the country could largely increase, it would be necessary for the Government to extend its aid in repairing the levees on the Mississippi, in relieving the planters of the Southern States from their proportion of the taxes for a time at least, and in sustaining and supporting the people engaged in agricultural pursuits. He believed that then the quantity of cotton produced would be doubled or trebled, and that it would be sold for half its price. He believed it could be raised for 2½ cents a pound when the former slave became the owner or planter of one or two or five acres. Heretofore cotton had been produced in only five States. He believed it could be grown more or less profitable in twenty States.

The debate closed by the previous question. The House then proceeded to vote. The yeas and nays were called on the latter motion and resulted: yeas, 84; nays, 45; so that the motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

The next amendment was to insert a provision authorizing all gas companies whose price for gas is fixed by law to add in the tax. The yeas and nays were called for and refused, and the vote was taken by letter, resulting in 58 to 53; so the amendment was concurred in.

The next amendment increasing the tax on ready made clothing from one to five per cent. was nonconcurred in, also the amendment on the same subject making the exemption apply to those whose annual products do not exceed $2,000. The next amendment imposing a tax of five per cent. per pound on shoddy wool, manufactured from woven cloth, was nonconcurred in.

The amendment reducing the tax on smoking tobacco from twenty to fifteen cents per pound was concurred in. The amendment in relation to segars was nonconcurred in.

The next amendment was that authorizing railroad companies to add the tax to their fares. The amendment was non-concurred in. The amendments as to the income tax were non-concurred in. The amendment taxing State bank circulation ten per cent. after the first of August next was concurred in. The amendments as to oil dressed leather were non-concurred in. The amendment allowing apothecaries to sell wines and spirits on physicians' prescriptions without paying license as retail dealers was concurred in. The amendment requiring Inspectors of Internal Revenue to divest themselves within sixty days of any interest they may have in the manufacture of tobacco, whisky, &c., was non-concurred in. This disposed of all amendments. The House voted to insist on its disagreement with the Senate, and asked for a Committee of Conference, and then, at half past four, the House adjourned.

The Financial Budget—Cost of the Fenian Raids.

OTTOWA, C. W., June 27.—The Financial Minister brought down the budget last night. The expenditures for the past year amount to $12,000,000, of which $270,000 was applied to the reduction of the public debt. The expenditures included all the charges incurred on account of the Fenian raids. The customs have realized over a million dollars in excess of the previous year; imports excess, $8,500,000; exports excess, $9,000,000. The whole trade of the province has increased $18,000,000. The expenses incurred in consequence of Fenian raids amounted to $1,110,000. The Financial Minister alluded to the effectual manner in which the United States government had dealt with the Fenians, but said that the Fenian snake was scared, not killed.

The duty of the Province was to be in a position more effectually to repel aggressors, consequently instead of $50,000 heretofore asked for militia purposes, $1,500,000 was placed in the estimates. In consequence of the abrogation of the Reciprocity treaty, it became imperative to arrange the customs. The estimated falling off in revenue is $4,000,000. To supply the deficiency the following is proposed: To raise the duty on spirits from thirty to sixty cents a gallon; to raise the Customs duty on whisky and brandy to the specific standard of seventy cents a gallon; to levy a duty on Indian corn and coarse grains from the State of 10 cents a bushel; to levy a duty on flour coming from the States, of 50 cents a barrel; to abolish the free ports of Gaspe and Saut St. Marie; to raise the duty on tea from 9 to 12 and 12½ cents per pound; to impose an export duty on saw logs of 25 cents per standard log. To change the method of levying duty, which will hereafter be levied on the accumulated charges at the port of shipment; to reduce duties on Sugars to the English standard, viz: Refined Sugar, $3 per 100 pounds; White Clayed, $2,80; Yellow Muscovado and Brown Clayed, $2,25; and other Sugars, $1,75; to make the duty on Cane Juice $1,50 per gallon, and Molasses $1 per gallon; to impose a duty of 10 cents per gallon on wine in wood not over twenty-six degrees of proof spirits, and twenty-five cents per gallon on wine containing twenty-six degrees of proof spirits on wine in bottles, except sparkling wine $1,20 per dozen; on genuine sparkling wine $6 per dozen. The duty on coffee is reduced and there is a general reduction of the duties on manufactured goods of about three per cent., these changes go into effect at once.

On the more strictly financial question, Mr. Galt announced that the Government had to provide for over five millions of dollars, to raise which they proposed instead of going to England to issue legal tender notes to that extent.

Pardoned by the President.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The President has authorized the issue of a pardon to A. T. Bledsoe, who in the early part of the rebellion occupied the position of Assistant Secretary of War in the Confederate Cabinet. His pardon was earnestly recommended by O. H. Browning and others.

Arrested at Richmond.

RICHMOND, June 27.—Pollard was arrested this forenoon for posting James, and bailed in the sum of $14,000, to appear at the Mayor's court to-morrow. James has not yet been arrested.

A Female Burglar.

A few evenings ago, at an hour when city people (during this warm weather) enjoy the cooling breezes after nightfall, several citizens resident and doing business on one of our main streets, while seated in a doorway, had their attention attracted to what appeared to them singular and suspicious proceedings of a woman, who they observed loitering about and finally entering an office on the opposite side of the street from where they were sitting. So suspicious were her movements that one of the citizens concluded to remain on the alert, the others retiring or departing homewards. Presently the female entered the office and soon after came the gentleman occupying it, he also entering, but soon coming out, locking the door after him. Not long after he returned, remained but a short time, and again retired. The individual "on watch," feeling satisfied the woman was in the house, imagined it in his power to entrap a "female burglar," or a male burglar in disguise, and called upon the Captain of the Night Police, to whom he made known his suspicions. Search was instituted, and the result somewhat astonished the searchers. The Captain knocked at the door, which was unlocked from the inside by the woman, or person in female apparel. From her (or his) demeanor, apparent familiarity with the premises, the police Captain and vigilant observer concluded they were on a wrong scent, and retired without making explanation or being asked to make any. This transpired about twelve o'clock in the night. Not a great while after their visit to the office, and whilst they were yet contemplating what was best to be done in the premises, the human form in female apparel came out, locked the door, and departed. This is the female burglar story which has been circulating about the streets for a few days.

A Popular Dealer in a New Place

The pedestrian on Market street cannot fail noticing the really elegant boot and shoe establishment recently opened by W. G. Mehaffey, formerly of Mehaffey & Neely. The store is beautifully situated and will soon become the fashionable depot of that line of business in the city. The proprietor has just returned from the manufacturing cities of the East, and has brought with him one of the finest stocks of boots, shoes, gaiters and slippers ever opened in this city. His goods have been selected with much care, as the new store desires to make a reputation for selling the best articles at the lowest of prices. Everything in the way of covering for the pedal extremities, from the tiny bootling to the huge mill brogan, can be obtained there at prices surpassingly cheap. Mr. Mehaffey makes slippers a speciality, and has in store a multitude of the most beautiful styles of cloth, velvet and canvas patterns, which he manufactures to order. Fine calf boots for gentlemen's wear are also made to order, the superiority in this particular line being recognized by the most fastidious of gentlemen. He likewise manufactures lasts for the feet, to be used in the manufacture of boots and shoes. These lasts are the exact counterfeits of the feet, and to persons having corns, bunions or lumps, they will prove a great blessing as a neat fitting and easy boot or shoe can always be obtained. Mr. Mehaffey is a fair dealing and agreeable gentleman, and we cheerfully commend him to the patronage of the community. His card appears in another column of to-day's paper.

School Examinations

This is the season for the annual examinations of the pupils in our public schools. We were present yesterday afternoon at the First Ward School, in Allegheny, which is presided over by Prof. H. W. Bancroft, one of the most successful educators of youth in this section of the State. During the afternoon, the girls and boys in the first and second primary departments were examined, and the manner in which the little ones acquitted themselves gave ample evidence of the aptitude and pains-taking of the lady teachers under whose immediate charge they had been placed during the past session. The teachers who have labored to "teach the young idea how to shoot" in these two departments are Miss Jennie M. Frazier, boys, and Miss Sarah Lyle, girls, first primary department; Miss Sarah McQuigg, girls and Miss M. E. Boyd, boys, second primary department. Postmaster Samuel Riddle, one of the Directors, delivered the premiums, neatly bound books, prefacing their delivery with appropriate remarks. The occasion was enlivened by music, under the leadership of Mr. Darling, the musical instructor of the school. That he has been successful in the performance of the task assigned him, the volume of rich melody which welled up from hundreds of little throats gave ample evidence. To-day the Medium Department will be examined, and on Friday, the Grammar and High School Departments. The parents of the children are respectfully invited to attend.

Reception of the State Regimental Flags.

From information received at the Executive Department, in this city, says the Harrisburg Telegraph, we infer that the attendance of the military of all parts of the Commonwealth will be immense on the occasion of the flag reception in Philadelphia on the 4th of July next. The Committee of Arrangements, of which General Harry White is chairman, have been assiduous in their efforts to facilitate the transportation of troops from all parts of the State to Philadelphia on the occasion, and there is no longer any doubt that the military display will be magnificent in its proportions and sublime beyond all description in the historic grandeur of its individuality.

It has been partially arranged, owing to the fact that the State Capital has no present military organization, that a delegation of four men from each of our efficient fire companies, equipped, be detailed to participate in the reception. It is suggested that the men thus to be detailed be selected on account of the length of time they served in the field as soldiers. Gov. Curtin has indicated his determination to furnish such delegations from this city with passes, and secure them a place in the line of procession.

Thieves in Oildom.—The Titusville Herald says: On Monday morning a daring outrage was committed on the premises of No. 1 well, belonging to Stanton Oil Company, Enterprise. A valuable cable, sand pump, rope and pump were stolen. The same parties, it is presumed, visited the Bates well adjoining, and committed further depredations, abstracting sand pump, rope, etc. Robberies of this description are becoming so frequent that producers ought to resolve themselves into a committee of vigilance, and inflict summary punishment on the depredators.

Narrow Escape.—John Noll, a hod carrier at Reading, Pa., in making a mis-step while carrying mortar on Wednesday, fell from the third story to the first floor of the building, without sustaining the least injury.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

Judge Sterrett presiding.

WEDNESDAY, June 27.—In the case of James and Charles Stevenson, jointly indicted for selling liquor without license, the jury convicted the former and acquitted the latter.

A CLEVER DODGE.

Fred. Smith, lager beer saloon keeper, on Smithfield street, was brought into Court on process to answer two indictments for selling liquor (beer) without license, James McCallister returning officer. The defendant desired to put in pleas of guilty to the indictments, but, acting under the advice of his counsel, J. M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., he concluded to go to trial on one indictment. The returning officer testified to Smith having sold beer during the months of April and May, and there being no evidence to the contrary, the jury of of course convicted. To the other indictment the plea of former conviction was entered, and sustained by the Court, for the reason that the evidence given on the first indictment was relied upon for conviction on the second. The jury therefore rendered a verdict of not guilty. Mr. Smith was sentenced to pay a fine of sixty dollars and costs. The clever dodge was simply this: Had the defendant persisted in his desire to put in pleas of guilty, he would have been sentenced upon both indictments, one (that on which he was acquitted) charging the second offense, which involves imprisonment in connection with a fine. So, by following the advice of his attorney, Smith escaped at least thirty days imprisonment in the county jail.

A DRUGGIST TRIED.

Newton McClarren, druggist, on Market street, was placed on trial for selling liquor without license, having been returned for so doing by the constable of the ward. The officer was informed (by whom, it did not appear) that the defendant sold liquor (whisky) by the bottle. The Court held that druggists have no right to sell liquor (except alcohol) unless on the prescription of a physician, and in the preparation of medicines, but the evidence being "hearsay," the information as to the selling not being offered as the admission of the defendant, or as given in his presence, the jury (said the Court) would not be justified in convicting. The jury therefore acquitted, but required defendant to pay the costs.

PLEAD GUILTY.

Benjamin White, of Temperanceville, plead-ed guilty of selling liquor without a license, and was fined fifteen dollars and the costs.

FELONIOUS CUTTING.

George Weygold was arraigned for trial for feloniously stabbing Joseph Miller, on Troy Hill, on the 21st of May, (Pentecost Monday.) at a pic-nic. Miller testified that as he was leaving the pic-nic grounds, in company with two young ladies, he saw two boys fighting, and endeavored to separate them. In so doing he was stabbed in the left side of the abdomen, by somebody, he did not know who. He said he had no acquaintance with Weygold, did not recollect seeing him at the pic-nic, and saw him for the first time, to recognize him, on Friday last. Dr. Hamilton testified that he was called to attend Miller. The wound was a serious one, about two yards of the intestines protruding through it. He attended Miller for some two weeks regularly, and he was yet under his care. The wound, in the opinion of the physician, was inflicted with a knife, and might have been given without the party receiving it observing who did it. Mary Hickman and Mary Dougherty, the young ladies in company with Miller testified that Weygold did the cutting, that they saw the knife in his hand, and saw him strike Miller with it.

For the defense, W. C. Moreland, Esq., counsel, quite a number of witnesses were examined, and when the testimony closed, the case presented peculiar features. It appeared that the defendant was acting in the capacity of bar-keeper, and was one of the managers of the picnic. There were several fights, in which he was concerned as peace-maker, and several persons testified to his having been struck repeatedly and knocked down, and one or two state that the prosecutor, Miller, struck him several times. The evidence of the fact that Wygold did the cutting was positive, but as it did not appear that there had been a quarrel between the defendant and the prosecutor, the jury acquitted of the felony and convicted of the misdemeanor of unlawfully cutting and wounding. Sentence deferred.

LARCENY CASE.

William Smith was arraigned on a charge of larceny, convicted, and recommended to the mercy of the Court. Sentence postponed.

ATTEMPT TO OUTRAGE A LITTLE GIRL.

George Dyer, employed at the Clinton Iron Works, Monongahela borough, was arraigned upon an indictment for assault and battery with intent to ravish Mary Howells, a little girl not more than twelve years of age. The evidence in this case (too gross for publication) developed a degree of depravity most shocking to contemplate. There was no evidence of any force having been used, the little girl consenting to the criminal act and meeting the defendant by arrangement. The case was not concluded at adjournment.

Opening of the Merchants' Hotel.

The Merchants' Hotel, formerly known as the Girard House, situated on the corner of Smithfield and Third streets, was formally opened to the public yesterday by a grand complimentary dinner to a number of invited guests. The dinner was prepared in the most sumptuous style, and spoke volumes in praise of the epicurean abilities of the popular host, S. H. Rial, Esq., formerly of the St. Charles. The new hotel will rank with our first class houses, and has been fitted up in such a manner as to render it equal to any in appearance. It numbers one hundred rooms, independent of the large dining halls and parlors. The traveling public will find every accommodation to render them comfortable, while the rates are very moderate. We wish the new house all the prosperity imaginable.

Commencement.—The commencement exercises at Western University will take place to-morrow evening, commencing at eight o'clock. Orations will be delivered by Robert Rodgers, of Lawrenceville, H. D. Gamble, of McKeesport, G. W. Guthrie, of Homewood, R. H. Negley, of East Liberty, and John Gordon, of Swissvale, after which degrees will be conferred. A procession, under the charge of General J. B. Sweitzer, and composed of Band, Cadets, Students, Faculty, Alumni of other institutions, Trustees and Clergymen, will be formed at the University at seven o'clock.

Beat a Boy.—George Carlyle made oath before Alderman Humbert yesterday against J. J. Keeler for disorderly conduct. It appears that a son of the prosecutor had a hose attached to a hydrant for the purpose of washing the pavement, when another boy endeavored to wrench it from his grasp. In the struggle that ensued the hose was accidentally turned into Mr. Keeler's door, whereupon the latter rushed into the street, grasped the boy by the throat and gave him several kicks in the side. The case was settled after a hearing, the defendant agreeing to pay the costs.

Fell from a Window.—Dennis M'Cartney, the proprietor of a segar store on Smithfield street, fell from the third story window of the Eagle Hotel, on Liberty street, last night about twelve o'clock, and injured himself to such an extent that his recovery is pronounced extremely doubtful. He was a boarder at the hotel, and had just returned a few moments before the occurrence slightly under the influence of liquor. Drs. Herron and Dickson were the attending physicians.

Inquests.—Coroner Clawson held an inquest yesterday on the remains of Joseph Schanoffer, the boy who was killed on the Perrysville plank road on Sunday by being run over by a buggy. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death, stating that the occupants of the vehicle were entirely freed from blame in the matter. An inquest was also held on the body of Samuel Harper, who died from sun stroke on Tuesday. A verdict was given in accordance with the facts.

Death of a Noble Fellow.—A boatman named James Shoemaker was drowned in the canal near Greenville, Pa., on Sunday. He had jumped into the canal to save a boy who was drowning, and after rescuing him was taken with cramp before he could get out of the water. He was a resident of Summit township, and had served in the 11th Pennsylvania Volunteers during the war.

Before Alderman Johns.—Mary McGance, a resident of the Seventh ward, and a denizen of "Fort Hell" on Overhill street, was charged by Miss Mary Porter with having most shamefully abused the affiant. A warrant was issued and Mary brought to the temple of justice, and after considerable wailing and pitiful appeals, this daughter of Ham was discharged with payment of cost.

Ingenious Thief.—An ingenious thief in Brownsville, Mercer county, recently tapped the till of a store in that place in a very ingenious manner. The drawer when closed, was against the wall, and calculating the distance, the fellow cut a hole from the outside of the building, striking the till fair in the centre. He made $70 by the operation. Little enough for the ingenuity displayed.

Painful Occurrence.—On Wednesday of last week, a boy six years of age, son of Franklin Hoopes, of Thornburg, Chester county, was shot in the head by a lad named Brown, of five years. The children had slept together, and the little fellow who drew the trigger could not be induced to relate the circumstances. The pistol had been kept loaded in the house for fear of robbers.

Mr. A. G. Devereaux, of North Springfield township, Erie county, while at work in his planing mill on last Wednesday afternoon, had his arm taken off by one of the knives, within three inches of the elbow. So suddenly and thoroughly was it done that he was not aware of his injury until he saw his arm lying on the other side of the knife.

Nitro-Glycerine.—An explosion occurred last week at Petroleum Centre by a torpedo. The same had been tried in a well and would not explode, and was taken to the shop of James A. Sheriff for repairs, supposing the charge to be fully out (nitro-glycerine), but it exploded, doing considerable damage and injuring one man.

Charged With Theft.—Mary Anderson was arrested and brought before Alderman Humbert, charged with the larceny of several small pieces of ribbon from Mrs. Ranes' millinery establishment. The evidence failed to fix the theft on Mary and she was accordingly discharged.

Fatal Accident.—Abraham Avey, an old citizen of Whitesville, Indiana county, Pa., met his death a few days ago by being run over by his own wagon. He left a wife and seven children to mourn his loss.

Large Stock Shipments.—Two hundred and seventy-eight cars of stock passed through this city eastward on Sunday, three days from Chicago.

Personal.—William A. Galbraith of Erie, has been elected President of the Union and Titusville Railway.

A Word About Watch House Lodgers.

The watch house last night contained no less than nine lodgers, or vagrants, each of whom had voluntarily gone to the tombs and demanded that they be accommodated with quarters for the night. Of this number four were women—if such wretched specimens of humanity deserve to be called women—while one of them bore in her arms a child some two years old, whose sallow complexion and sunken cheeks gave evidence of a total lack of the comforts usually enjoyed by the poorest while in infancy.

Each one, of course, had a distinct story of woe and suffering to relate, but judging from their appearance it is more than likely that the greatest enemy they had to contend with was themselves. These persons are a frequent source of annoyance to Captain Lewis, converting as they do his office into a sleeping apartment, utterly oblivious of that dignitary's comfort or convenience.

If the city authorities are determined to afford a house for every idle, drunken vagrant that comes along, we propose that other quarters than the tombs be found for their reception. We have no inclination to deal harshly with the erring one, but we do mean to enter our protest against the continuance of an asylum in our midst for the encouragement of vagrancy.

Sued By Her Husband.—John Kenly, charged his wife Mary with surety of the peace before Mayor McCarthy, yesterday. Mary, it appears from her husband's statement, has made frequent declarations that she intended henceforth to wear something very much after the fashion of Madame Blumwell, or in other words, meant to force the unfortunate Benedict to obey her. Mary made a wordy defense, but notwithstanding she was held to answer at court.

Fined for Nuisance.—J. E. Williams charged J. R. Bingler, baker, on Wylie street, with maintaining a nuisance on his premises, yesterday, before Alderman E. S. Morrow. Bingler was arrested, but on payment of $5 and costs was discharged. Michael Neauman was before the same magistrate yesterday, charged with a similar offence, on oath of Street Commissioner Flynn. He paid $2 and costs.

The Facts.—Robert Brown, whose sudden death is noticed elsewhere, was not a boarder in the Potomac House, but the proprietor of it. At the solicitation of a brother of the deceased, the Coroner held an inquest on the body yesterday evening. Death from heart disease was the conclusion arrived at.

Slightly Biased.—A party remonstrating against the application of a woman for tavern license, in the "whisky court," yesterday, admitted, on cross-examination, that he was slightly biased, the woman having given him the "mitten," or in other words rejected his offer of marriage.

Honest.—An honest individual named Paul Wilmot found a pocket-book containing a considerable amount of money, on Penn street, in the Ninth ward, yesterday. He took it immediately to the office of Alderman Taylor, where the owner can get it by calling.

Accident.—Mr. Smith, of the firm of Birmingham & Smith, merchant tailors, on Hand street, had his right foot horribly crushed on Tuesday night while jumping from a train while in motion on the West Common, First ward, Allegheny.

Sun Stroke.—Cyrus Rigby, brass founder, was sun struck about noon on Wednesday, while going to his work in the Fifth ward. He was taken to his boarding house, Mrs. Phillips', 15 Ross street, and is in a fair way of recovery.

In Town.—George Youngson, an old Pittsburgher, just from Australia, where he has been sojourning for a number of years, is in the city circulating among his numerous friends.

Killed in a Well.—A young man named Cyrus Job, of Ephrata, Lancaster county, was killed on Friday of last week, by the earth caving in while engaged in digging a well or cellar.

"Whisky Court."—Judges Mellon and Brown were employed yesterday, in the Supreme Court room, at the court-house, in hearing applications for license to sell liquor.

Boy Drowned.—A little son of Captain James Johnston, of Fallston, Beaver county, Pa., was drowned on Monday last by falling from a raft into the creek, at that place.

Erie Grain Elevator.—The city of Erie is to have a grain elevator. Plans and specifications have been procured from Chicago, and the work will be commenced at once.

Run Over and Killed.—Joseph Walker, of Lygumore township, Lancaster county, was accidentally killed last week by being run over by a heavily loaded wagon.

COL. FORNEY AND THE COMMERCIAL.

[illegible]

... ty for the Commonwealth, (c) as promulgated by the State Convention; (d) as affirmed by the Convention of Allegheny county; and (e) as enunciated by the City Conventions of Pittsburgh and Allegheny. It labored industriously so to demoralize the Republican party as to make the organization of a third party practicable, with a view to such ultimate co-operation, if not amalgamation, with the Democrats as should lead to the overthrow of the Republicans and the repudiation of their principles. Failing in this mischievous undertaking—getting no more following than just enough to make the movement contemptible—it now has the impudence to set itself up as a censor upon the conduct of an eminent gentleman who has not faltered in his allegiance to the principles of the Republican party, but has made himself most conspicuous by an able and consistent—it sometimes, exacerbating—advocacy of them.

2. The Commercial has the hardihood to impeach Col. FORNEY's fidelity to the party, because he looks upon negro suffrage as one of the elements of a permanent and beneficial reconstruction of the Union. How many weeks ago since our cotemporary was the most zealous and indefatigable advocate of negro suffrage in Pennsylvania? It went for it in every possible shape, and in some shapes that were not possible. It was for military service as a basis of negro voting; for intelligence and for property and for simple humanity. It was for any basis it could obtain, or for all combined in one. It wanted the Federal Constitution amended without delay, so as to authorize black suffrage throughout the whole country, and, failing that, insisted the Constitution of Pennsylvania should be amended immediately—though by its terms it could not be—in order that black suffrage might be inaugurated here. Why has not Col. FORNEY a right to an "impracticability" as well as the Commercial? Why is not the Colonel at liberty to indulge in one "impracticability" so long as the Commercial never indulges in any thing else?

3. It is not true that the republican party has declared against black suffrage. The utmost that can be truthfully said is it has not declared for it. Many republicans, and among them not a few who are eminent for discernment, experience, talent, and virtue, are in favor of allowing black men to vote on the same terms as white ones.

4. We are not disposed to allow a procustean standard of orthodoxy to be erected in the republican party, and least of all by such heretics as the Commercial. Prudes lay their virtue open to suspicion by their squeamishness. We believe in freedom of thought and utterance. Claiming a large measure of liberty for ourselves, we concede an equal measure to all others. In this liberty, we do not include license to corrupt and betray. We do not believe in Cowanism, which mainly consists in making pretensions to be a republican in order to attend the Senate caucusses of that party in the capacity of a spy, and steadily talking and voting with and for rebels and copperheads. We accept Mr. THADDEUS STEVENS as a true republican, though we do not always concur in his ideas and schemes. Whenever we have dissented from him, or from others of the party leaders, we have not hesitated to say so, and expect to follow on to the end in that manner. Born of Free Discussion, the republican party cannot live without it. Differences of opinion are begotten by mental agitation. Identity of ideas, and in the statement of them, are produced by the inquisitorial process, and in the Dead Sea of constrained uniformity intellectual and moral life expires.

IT now turns out that the Memphis defalcation runs to $700,000. It seems to common people that the Government has a strange way of trusting vast sums without security, and then not calling for settlement till too late.

IN the House of Representatives the new Tariff Bill is the special order for to-day. The rate of protection allowed by the bill is so high, on the average, as the friends of home industry care to obtain.

IN a recent speech President JOHNSON said:

"I repeat, I am for the Union; I am for preserving all the States. I am for admitting into the councils of the nation all their representatives who are unmistakably and unquestionably loyal. A man who acknowledges allegiance to the Government and who swears to support the Constitution must necessarily be loyal. A man cannot take that oath in good faith unless he is loyal."

The Democratic journals appear to be charmed with this statement of doctrine, holding it to be entirely sound. We do not believe at all in the assertion that the "man who swears to support the Constitution must necessarily be loyal." DAVIS, STEPHENS, LEE, FLOYD, BRECKINRIDGE, and that whole set, took oath upon oath to support the Constitution, even while they were plotting to overthrow the Government. They are ready to take the oath again. In this readiness President JOHNSON finds evidence of renewed loyalty. We doubt. He would let them take the oath, and come in, and go to plotting again. We would not. And this explains why we [illegible]

[illegible]

—A New Bedford [redacted] school, went as far as V... was convicted on the ... sentenced to be hung ... Governor Pierpont. An... for the young truant.

—Jacob Kock, of Keokuk, ... a toy cannon with powder and ... ordinary marble for a bullet. He ... muzzle to his mouth and with ... touched off the piece. His brains scattered in all directions.

—Jeff. Davis' friends have not yet ... doned his case. Governor Pratt, of Maryland, had an interview with the President in regard to the matter. Charles O'Conor states that Davis' health is quite feeble and insists on his being paroled.

—A foul murder was committed at Edinburg, Indiana, on the 22d. A young man named Philip Ditman, in a fit of jealousy, shot five times with a revolver and then set fire to the clothes of a young lady named Martha Bennett. The fiend is in jail.

—It is complained that at a late fireman's celebration at Houston, Texas, disloyal demonstrations were made. The South was represented by a young lady in chains, confederate airs and no national ones were played, and no national flags displayed.

—The wife of a German residing at West Hoboken, N. J., arose in the night and went to the window for something. Her husband awoke just at that moment, and mistaking her for a burglar, fired two shots from his revolver, both of which took effect, and she died in a short time.

—The statue of Hon. Edward Everett has been completed in clay by Mr. Story, and will be ready for dedication in May next. It is to be cast in bronze at Munich, but should the impending war prove of long continuance, the arrangements now made may possibly be interfered with.

—Zachariah Johnson, a citizen of Marysville, Mo., was seized, boxed up, and driven off in a covered wagon by two ruffians. He escaped by cutting his way through the bottom of the box and wagon with a pocket knife. He can attribute no motive for the singular conduct of his captors.

—In England, Mr. John Stuart Mill has presented in the House of Commons a petition in favor of the extension of the suffrage to female resident householders. It was signed, he showed, by eleven hundred and fifty ladies belonging to the upper and middle classes, and all of them gave their addresses.

—The Syracuse Standard says that as a horse belonging to a cartman was running away, a dog, belonging to the same owner, sprang upon the cart, caught the lines in his teeth, then fell back upon the pavement and held tight, dragging along until the horse was stopped and the owner came up and took possession.

—Cornell University, at Ithaca, N. Y., is well under way. It will be remembered that Ezra Cornell gave $500,000 for founding this University, and the State has also made grants of land which are likely to prove valuable. The hope is expressed that this institution will eventually have an endowment of the value of $3,000,000.

—Colyer, one of the participants in the recent brutal prize fight near Washington, has antecedents which ought to keep him in better business. He fought gallantly for the Union during the war of the rebellion, and was the second soldier who entered Fort Harrison. For his many acts of bravery he was promoted to a captaincy.

—Several days ago, while the workmen were excavating a lot near the market, in Norfolk, they exhumed the bones of three human beings; which, from all appearance, had been interred centuries ago, and were probably the remains of the first denizens of the country, whose race has long since become extinct. The discovery created quite an excitement.

—A youth, an apprentice to John Ascough, blacksmith in Philadelphia, died recently of hydrophobia. About three weeks ago a cat entered the shop, and the boy was ordered to turn it out. He took the animal in his hands and was bitten by it. Next morning he was taken with spasms and suffered in great agony until morning when he died.

—A lady in Concordia, Illinois, was very sick a few days ago, and her physician decided that squirrel soup was necessary for her. A request was at once sent to all the men in town to shoot a squirrel for her, but there was not a man in town willing to do this simple act for an invalid. A country girl who happened to be in the neighborhood heard of it, shouldered a rifle, and returned in about half an hour with four squirrels, each shot through the head.

Agassiz and his Discoveries.

In the July number of the Atlantic Monthly, Professor Agassiz throws down the gauntlet of defiance to the opponents of his glacial theory. In the first of a series of papers on the "Physical History of the Valley of the Amazons," he gives us the first account yet received direct from himself of the remarkable discoveries which have attended his explorations in Brazil, and announces his position in these positive terms:

"I am prepared to find that the statement of a new phase of the glacial period will awaken among my scientific colleagues an opposition even more violent than that by which the first announcement of my views on this subject was met. I am, however, [illegible]

Commencement Week at the University—Baccalaureate.

The class of 1866 were addressed on Tuesday morning, by the President of the Faculty, George Woods, LL. D., with reference to their approaching examination. Dr. W., in the choice of his subject—Listening—was so happy as to escape the common line of thought, and, in his treatment of it, succeeded in giving an interest to the occasion more general than the specific object, to which, nevertheless, it was well adapted.

The advantages of a habit of listening, as contrasted with a dependence on books exclusively, were exemplified and illustrated, a wide range of science and literature being drawn upon for this purpose. In fact, so apt were these citations of incidents and sayings from all times and all lands, that an outline of the address might be given suggestively, by the mere recital of these.

The ancient sages of Greece and Rome acquired and imparted their wisdom by oral instruction. The travels of Pythagoras in quest of wisdom, and his restrictions upon the loquacity of his younger pupils, were referred to. It was a rule of a certain "Silent Academy" in Persia, to "think much, write little, and speak the least possible." The present age suffers from a plethora of books. They not only distract the mind in the endeavor to choose between them, but draw off the attention to other sources of information, as, for example, observation, and, which may be regarded as one form of observation, listening. The self-conceit which closes the ears against the suggestions of the humble was well exposed. It denied to John Couch Adams access to the Greenwich Observatory when that young and talented astronomer was ready, with his profound calculations, to search successfully for the unknown planet Neptune, and to claim for his country the honor of its discovery, that France now glories in.

The requisites for good listening, freedom from prejudice, and an humble desire for knowledge, were set forth and enforced. In this line of thought it lies in the doctor's way to illustrate amusingly the prejudice that learned men have often entertained against innovations upon their old familiar theories. He gave some striking examples of the bitterness of the persecution which the discoverers of great truths had suffered at the hands of those who might fairly have been expected to welcome the accessions thus made to the store of human knowledge. The folly of loquacity, especially in the young, was well shown. "He who speaks, sows; he who listens, speaks."

The speaker did not forget to warn his young hearers that it is as important to learn to turn a deaf ear to much that may be heard, as to listen aright to what is of value.

The charge, in conclusion, to the graduating class, to listen to each call of duty and to each word of solid instruction whensoever issuing, was timely and impressive.

A Spicy Hearing.

In yesterday's issue of the Gazette we noticed an assault and battery and cutting affair which took place in Church alley the preceding day. It was stated that a young man named Thomas Laughrey and his sister, Sarah Laughrey, had cut and cruelly beat a certain Patrick Kearney, while washing himself at his own door. The case came up for a hearing yesterday at the office of Alderman Lynch, in the Third ward, J. Charles Dicken, Esq., appearing as counsel for the prosecution, and John Case, Esq., for the defense. The first witness called was Kearney, who testified that the defendants assaulted him as stated, and that Thomas Laughrey cut him in the side with a knife. He further asserted that Miss Laughrey threw stones at him, which struck him on the breast and sides, injuring him to such an extent that he was forced to remain in bed for several hours afterward. When Kearney had proceeded thus far in his statement, an excited Celtic lady, named Julia Doyle,—a witness for the defense—interrupted the proceedings by announcing to the spectators present that Kearney was "a d—d auld liar, and that it was a burning shame that his evidence was taken against respectable people." To this Kearney retorted that Mrs. Doyle should be locked up, remarking to the crowd that "everybody knew her." This seemed to add fuel to the flame of indignation which already burned fiercely in the bosom of the irritated matron, who declared that she would have the present case postponed, in order that Kearney might be placed on trial for defaming her character. Quite a scene of confusion ensued, during which the principals, witnesses, attorneys and magistrate were engaged in a wordy warfare that threatened for a time to end in a general row. Order was at length restored.

Mrs. Doyle was then placed on the witness stand, a position, judging from the expressive smile that rested on her sallow countenance, she hugely relished, believing that she had now the right of law to say what she pleased, and from the manner she set about it, it was plainly apparent she meant to enjoy that right to its fullest extent. In vain did the magistrate endeavor to check her volubility—in vain did the attorneys expostulate with her—in vain did Kearney, whom she was assailing with vile invectives, endeavor to make himself heard. This she would, and talk she did, until from utter exhaustion she sat down. The magistrate, totally disgusted with the entire proceedings, announced, with a sigh of relief, that the hearing was over, and that he was constrained to ask five hundred dollars bail for the appearance of Thomas Laughrey, and three hundred dollars for the appearance of his sister at the October term of the Criminal Court.

Death of M'me Julie de Marguerittes.

The Philadelphia Telegraph says: It is with feelings of the profoundest melancholy that we announce the sudden death of Madame de Marguerittes, well known as the able and accomplished dramatic and musical critic of the Evening Telegraph. Connected as we were in our daily avocations, it is scarcely possible for us to write the last words to her memory without a feeling of sorrow that may perhaps be construed into extravagant eulogy; but those who knew her intimately will testify that her admirable qualities of head and heart are beyond the reach of flattery.

M'me Marguerittes was the daughter of Dr. A. B. Granville, F. R. S., of London, who became distinguished as a medical practitioner in that city, and also as the author of a number of medical works, which are still regarded as standard by the profession.

Julie, at an early age, married Baron de Marguerittes, a Frenchman of unquestionable station and character. The Baron being wealthy, and of a somewhat roving disposition, devoted many years to travel, and in company with his wife visited every European capital and the various localities made famous in prose or poetry. Her wonderful familiarity with European affairs and its interesting scenes is thus accounted for. The revolution of 1848 found the Baron in Paris, and having taken sides with the unsuccessful party, he was compelled to leave France and take an asylum in the United States.

Very soon after their arrival in this country she became a contributor to the New York Sunday Courier, writing the "Ins and Outs of Paris," a work which afterwards was published in book form, and met with a rapid sale. About 1855, immediately after the death of her husband, she removed to Philadelphia, and became connected with the Sunday Transcript, and has remained attached to that paper up to the time of her death, in the capacity of a dramatic critic, and as a contributor of "Parisian Pickings," and other admirable papers.

After the death of Baron de Marguerittes, she married George G. Foster, who died in 1850. He is well known in connection with the light literature of the country. She was afterwards married to Samuel J. Rea, a well known attache of the Philadelphia press.

Madame Marguerittes was one of the most voluminous writers in the country. She found herself with a family to support, and with an energy rarely displayed among females, she addressed herself to the task. By the indefatigable use of her pen, she had not only supported her children, but has educated them in every art, and perhaps there are not in our city more accomplished young ladies than her daughters. One of them has already made a name for dramatic and musical ability, which time will rapidly increase.

Many of Madame de Marguerittes' occasional contributions are seen floating through the newspapers of the day, without any responsible name, for her custom was to publish her articles anonymously, but they all proved that she had a vigorous mind, and wielded the pen of a ready writer. She was universally admitted to be ablest dramatic and musical critic in the country.

Her industry was untiring, and all her labors were devoted to the welfare of her children. She was the model of mothers, and her children will sacredly revere her memory. She was found dead in her bed this morning, and the attending physician pronounced her disease to be an affection of the heart.

Charged With Keeping a Disorderly House.—James Martin was arrested and brought before Justice Lipp, yesterday, charged with keeping a disorderly house on oath of Jane Mulholland. The parties are both residents of Carson street, in the borough of Birmingham, and for several weeks past have been engaged in divers petty quarrels. At the hearing it was discovered that the charge of the prosecution had no foundation in fact, but had been instituted through malicious motives, and the defendant was therefore discharged, the prosecutrix paying the costs.

Whipped Her.—Patrick Keeny was arraigned before his Honor, Mayor McCarthy, yesterday, on oath of Jane Carrol, who testified that Patrick kicked her three times in the breast with a wooden shoe. The parties reside in close proximity to each other on Fountain street, in the Third ward, a locality that has become somewhat notorious of late for family brawls. Patrick, infused with pugilistic ardor, made the assault on Mrs. Carrol, for which he was held in $300 to answer at court.

Afraid of Him.—Adam Jeremey was up before Alderman Donaldson yesterday for surety of the peace, on oath of Christ Besser. At the hearing of the case, which was held last evening, Christ stated that Adam had never made threats in his hearing, but from what he (Christ) had been told by a certain Mrs. Jones, he was led to suppose that Jeremy meditated doing him some evil. There being no direct evidence the defendant was discharged.

Sudden Death.—A boarder in the Potomac House, situated on Main street in the borough of Manchester, named Hubert Brown, died very suddenly in his chamber yesterday morning. At the request of the deceased's brother an inquest will be held on the body to-day.

Discharged.—Mrs. Doyle, charged with keeping a bawdy house, had a hearing yesterday before Alderman Lynch, when she was discharged, the evidence being insufficient to warrant her commitment for trial.

TELEGRAMS.

FROM CANADA.

Trial of Fenian Prisoners—Terrible Tornado at Oil Springs—Hotel Blown to the Ground—Boiler Explosion—One Man Killed and Several Wounded.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The Herald's Montreal special says: Sixteen Fenian prisoners have been brought here for confinement in the jail. The broad charge upon which the prisoners were committed is that of levying war against Her Majesty. Colonel Ermatinger, the committing magistrate, came in with the accused, who were brought to this city for greater security, in view of the last affair at Pigeon Hill. It is not known when their trial will take place.

The Herald's Toronto special says: Marvin, one of the Fenian prisoners here, was admitted to bail on his own recognizance yesterday, his employer at Buffalo representing him as an inoffensive and innocent person.

R. A. Harrison, barrister, is industriously working up the prosecution of the Fenians on the part of the Government. It is now pretty well determined that they will be tried by a military court-martial, under the Foreign Aggression act. It is said that General John H. Cameron will act as Chairman of the Commission.

The 18th Regulars are now constantly on guard at the old jail, and an officer sleeps in the building. Several church dignitaries are interesting themselves with the case of the Episcopal clergyman who is incarcerated as a Fenian.

One of the most terrible tornadoes that has ever visited Canada took place last night at the village of Oil Springs. A large hotel recently erected was blown to the ground. Much damage was done to derricks and oil wells.

During the tornado a boiler burst, killing one man and severely injuring others. The storm also passed over Ingersoll, doing a great deal of damage. The force of the storm tore up large trees by the roots.

The Adjournment of Congress—The Amendment to the Currency Act—Complaints of the New York Bankers—The Memphis Cotton Swindle.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The morning papers have the following specials from Washington: It is probable that when Congress adjourns on Thursday or Friday of this week, it will not assemble again until the week after next, so as to give the members an opportunity to spend the Fourth of July at their homes. There appears to be no prospect as yet of an early termination of the session.

The New York delegation of bankers had a lengthy interview this morning with the Comptroller and the House Committee on Banking and Currency, in relation to the proposed amendments to the National Currency Act. They complain that the State tax on National circulation is excessively heavy and onerous, and request its removal. They state that they cannot profitably continue their business under the present tax.

Fresh developments are coming to light in connection with the Memphis swindle. It turns out that seven or eight hundred thousand dollars in 7-30 notes, which were sent to Carleton some time towards the close of last year for disposal, on account of the Government, have also been embezzled and employed in cotton speculation. The whole is to be fully investigated in a day or two by the Banking and Currency Committee.

From St. Petersburg—Russia Will not Assist Austria—Turkey not Permitted to Occupy the Danubian Principalities.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The Herald's St. Petersburg correspondent, writing on the 8th of June, denies that there exists an understanding or treaty by virtue of which Russia will assist Austria in the coming war. He places in review a summary of the history of the diplomacy of the two empires during the past sixteen years, as evidence that such an arrangement would not be entered into. Russia, it is said, will not permit Turkey to occupy the Danubian Principalities. The price of every article of consumption as a necessary of life was rapidly advancing in Vienna, in the face of a depreciated paper currency.

A Berlin letter, of the 10th of June, says that from two to three hundred, and some days fully three hundred bills are brought to protest in that city. The Spanish Senate has approved of the bill to fix the frontier line between France and Spain in accordance with the recent treaty concluded between the two countries.

Covert Sentenced to be Hung.

CINCINNATI, June 27.—Covert, the murderer of the Roosa family, was yesterday sentenced to be hung on the 24th of August, at Lebanon, Ohio.

Monday, July 9th, '66,
On which occasion
HALF A MILLION DOLLARS IN PRIZES
Will be presented to Ticket Holders, including
$100,000 IN GREENBACKS.

We advise all parties wanting tickets to send for them without delay, as we have but a limited number yet on hand. We wish more particularly to impress upon the minds of our Agents the importance of their making their returns at once, and of rectifying whatever errors may have crept into their remittances. We will pay to those sending for tickets, that if they should all be sold at the time their order is received, the money will be returned.
No applications for new agencies for the sale of tickets will be considered, as we have no more than sufficient tickets to supply those Agents we have already appointed. FINANCE AND TRADE.

Wednesday, June 27, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 153¾; 1881s, 110¼; 5-20's, 103@103¾; 10-40's, 98¼; 7-30's, 102¾. Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 83¾; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 99¾; Chicago & Northwestern, 28¾; Erie, 60¾.

The local money market is extremely tight. The Banks are making every exertion to gather up greenbacks to be enabled to make a favorable statement, and strengthen themselves for the coming July settlements. During the last two years the credit system has been to a great extent abandoned, but recently the regular 6-months credit has been inaugurated. The reporting of a "tight" money market refers more to the difficulty of obtaining loans than to an actual scarcity of funds. Money is plenty with a certain class of people, especially timid investors, who really have money laying idle because they do not know whether to invest in 5-20's, 7-30's, or something that can be bought below par, gives ample security for the investment, and yields about 9 per cent. For this class of men, our municipal County and Bounty Ward Bonds furnish a fair chance for investment.

Five Twenties took a sudden start to-day, not from any outside cause, but because everybody can see a wide margin between them and other government securities. An advance in the European markets would advance these bonds at least 1½ per cent, the more so, since the interest on 1881's is payable on Monday next, and holders who wish to realize the premium on the gold interest, will prefer to sell them at the present high quotations.

Gold opened weak this morning at 153¾, after having touched 155 yesterday. It fell to 151¾, with a prospect of a still further decline, but, in the absence of any later news from Europe, advanced again to 153¾. The news of an engagement between the opposing armies would probably send it up into the sixties; while, on the other hand, indications of peace, would force it down below 150. Our imports are now pretty well balanced by the heavy shipments of coin and none but importers and dealers, who were forced to replenish their stocks of goods at advanced prices, care about seeing the present gold premium sustained or advanced.

Railroad stocks are quiet, as the outside public does not seem disposed to bite, notwithstanding a very tempting bait was offered.

The amended tax bill is reported by the Senate Finance Committee provides that every national banking association, State bank or State banking association, shall pay ten per cent on the amount of notes of any person, State bank or State banking association, used for circulation and paid out by them after July, 1867. This proposed postponement of the July tax undoubtedly meets the wishes of the State banks of New York. That State has about sixty of the old-fashioned banks in existence, with an outstanding circulation of over twenty millions. Other States have no desire to avoid the immediate levy of the ten per cent.

Messrs. James Graham & Co., and Messrs. Rutter & Patterson, wholesale grocers in Philadelphia, have failed recently, from having purchased goods on sixty days, payable in gold, the great advance of which ruined them.

—The Oil Basin Petroleum Company has declared a dividend of two per cent, payable at the office of the Company in Philadelphia on the 2d of July, free of tax.

—The Directors of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company have declared a regular quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent, payable free of tax, on the 17th of July next. The dividend of 3½ per cent on the third mortgage bonds was also ordered paid, less Government tax, on the same day. The transfer books will close on the 30th instant.

—The New York Herald of Saturday makes the following comments on National Bank note circulation:

"Passing from this subject to that of the National Bank notes, we encounter a grave evil which it is the duty of Congress to mitigate or abolish as speedily as possible. That National Bank notes are a financial nuisance every bank President in New York will be willing to testify. They find their way from the country and stick here, where, in order to get rid of them for legal tender notes, the banks have to lend them for a period of from six to twelve days without interest. Upon the bonds deposited to secure the ultimate redemption of these notes the Treasury is paying the full rate of interest in gold, which will soon aggregate more than twenty millions per annum. This last is a direct waste of money, while the National Bank notes are a serious element of weakness in our currency system. Congress should, therefore, adopt radical measures for converting National Bank notes into Legal Tenders. This can be done by calling in all the National Bank notes and substituting therefor Legal Tender notes, at the same time cancelling an equivalent amount of the bonds already deposited as the basis of security with the Treasury Department."

—The New York Times, in commenting on the recent violent fluctuations in gold, says:

"The Gold speculation at the close of the week was partly on the rumor that the New Tariff, to be introduced at Washington to-day or to-morrow, will greatly stimulate the Custom demand on the rapid withdrawal of Foreign Goods from Bond to escape the enlarged duties. The same or a similar story was raised early in the week based on a very ridiculous telegram from Washington to one of the morning papers, that one hundred millions Foreign Goods are now in Bond, to be withdrawn and the duties paid in Gold. When the account of stock Goods in Bond was last made up in New York, the total varied very slightly from thirty millions. It has recently been increased, probably to $35,000,000, during the upward Gold excitement and the pressure for Money in Europe; and if we add one-third for the outports, the grand total would still fall short more than one-half the story from Washington—which, by the way, was a wild guess, without the slightest authority from the Treasury Department."

New York Money and Stock Market.

New York, June 27.—The Gold market was firm to the close of the day, and left off at 153@153¾. There is an increasing demand for government securities, and the market is very firm. The five-twenties are steadily growing into favor. The following were the closing prices: Registered Coupons of '81, 110@110¼; Coupon 5-20's of '65, 103@103¾; 10-40 Coupons, 98@98¼; June 7-30's, 103¼. There was more activity in stocks at the second regular and last open boards, and the market was generally a trifle firmer. After call Erie rose to 61, and then fell off to 60¾.

Afternoon Session—United States was lower and Consolidated higher. There was very little done in the other shares, as these two stocks continue the favorites at the daily sessions of the board.

Petroleum Stocks—New York and Newark, 10; Pithole No. 3, 265; Bennehoff Run, 325; United States, $25.

The Post's money article says: The loan market is abundantly supplied with idle capital. Call loans, for stock exchange purposes, at 4@6 per cent. Discounts 5@6 per cent. The Stock market is dull, but steady. Government Securities are firm. Of the Railroad shares North-western is most active and Erie rather lower. Gold is quiet, the borrowing rate being about 1-16 in favor of the lender, coin being scarce for delivery and the short interest large.

Stocks steady; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, 97¾; Chicago and Rock Island, 91¾; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 83¾; Cleveland and Toledo, 106¾; Chicago and Northwestern, 30¾; do preferred, 59¾; Michigan Southern, 78¾; Michigan Central, 105¾; Reading 109; Hudson, 110¾; Erie, 60¾; do preferred, 71¾; New York Central, 93¾; 5-20 coupons, '62, 104; 10-40 coupons, 98¾; 7-30 coupons, 2d series, 103; Western Union Telegraph, 52¾.

The Commercial's money article says: The export of specie to-day by the Scotia amounts to $600,000.

The stock market shows more speculative activity. The improvement in Erie has stimulated the market generally, and especially certain stocks, on which long cliques had been. Waiting for a turn of the tide the clique in Northwestern have taken advantage of the occasion for running up the common stock, which, at the board, closed at 30¾. Cleveland and Pittsburgh advanced ½; Marietta and Cincinnati was run up 4 per cent.; Erie closed ¾ lower, but with a strong upward tendency. Governments are firm. The advance caused by the demand for export, yesterday, is maintained; 5-20s of 1865 are ½ better; 7-30s also ¼ higher. Money is a drug on the market. It is not easy to empty balances on call at 4 per cent. Loans at 5 per cent. are now exceptional. Discounts are quiet at 5@7 per cent. for prime names. There is rather more produce commission paper on the market drawn on account of the wool crop. Foreign Exchange is nominal at about the closing rates of yesterday.

Sales were made at the four o'clock open board to-day as follows: New York Central, 93¾; Erie, 60¾; Catawissa, 30¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 83¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 91¾; Chicago & Northwestern, 30¾; Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago, 97¾; Marietta & Cincinnati first preferred, 45¾.

Mining Stocks—Ala Elmore, 300; Benton, 180; New York Gold, 44; Texas, 24; Holman, 31; Consolidated Gregory Gold, 10.25; Downieville, 11; Gunnell Gold, 50.

Chicago Lumber Market.

Chicago, June 26.—There is no cessation in the demand. Manufacturers and dealers are just as much surprised at the continuance of high prices as any one else. The wants of the country lying south and southwest of Chicago are unusually pressing and never before in the history of the Lumber trade have the requirements been so great at this season of the year. It is customary at this time of the year to look for dullness in business, but at present there are no indications of anything of the kind.

Good to choice cargoes of Mill-run sell at from $20,00@22,00, medium at from $18,50@19,50, and common Rafted at $17,00@18,00. Shingles are in active demand, and "A" Sawed sell readily at $5,75@6,00 afloat. Lath is steady at $4,00@4,12½ afloat.

St. Louis Market.

St. Louis, June 27.—Flour and wheat unchanged. Corn more active, at 62@77c. Pork, $33,00. Bacon—Clear side, 21½.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette, Wednesday, June 27, 1866.

There has been no new characteristics in the produce market to-day worthy of special notice. The demand for all the leading commodities is limited, while prices are nominally unchanged.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and but little offering; we continue to quote at $2,35 for No. 1 Spring, and $2,20 for No. 2 ditto. Oats dull and drooping; sale of 2 cars Chicago at 50; 1 do do at 52; 1 do do at 54; 54 sacks rye from store at [illegible]. Corn also is in good supply and dull; sales of 2000 bushels on private terms. Rye is quoted firm at $1,00 to $1,05. Buckwheat is selling at $2,00 to $2,25 and Spring Barley at 90 to $1,00 according to quality.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm and looking up though the demand is not very brisk. We continue to quote at 16 to 16½ for shoulders; 18½ to 19 for Ribbed Sides, and 24½ to 25 for Sugar Cured Hams. It is reported that an offer of 18¾ was made and refused for 30,000 lbs Ribbed sides. Lard is dull but firm at 22@23 for teamed and kettle rendered. Sales of Mess Pork reported at $33,50@33,75 per bbl.

FLOUR—Is quiet but firm with a moderate local demand, but prices remain unchanged at $10 to $11,25 for fair to choice Spring Wheat Family; $12,50 to $13 for Winter Wheat; and $14 to $16 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is selling in a regular way from store at $6,50@6,75 per barrel.

POTATOES—There is a continued fair demand and the market is firm and higher. Sales of Peach Blows at $1,35 to $1,45 per bush, and $3,50 to $4 per bbl, according to quality. New Potatoes are selling at $5 per bbl.

CHEESE—Is in good supply and dull; sales of Western Reserve at 15@16; Hamburg at 17@18, and Goshen at 21@22.

EGGS—Dull and a shade lower, the supply being somewhat in excess of the demand. We now quote at 21.

BUTTER—Is quiet and nominally unchanged; packed may be quoted at 20@22.

SALT—Is firm and a fraction higher; we now quote at $2,50 per bbl by the car load, and $2,70 @2,75 for small lots from store.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in demand at $2,70, and a round lot would doubtless bring $2,75. Nothing doing in Timothy or Clover.

SORGHUM—Is quiet and unchanged; occasional small sales at 55@60.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette, Wednesday, June 27, 1866.

CRUDE—The demand for Crude continues very light and the market is dull and weak with a drooping tendency. We now quote at 12½ bbls returned; 13 in bulk; 17, on the spot, packages included, and 18, packages included, free on board cars. There are some buyers at 12½ in bulk, but as yet, sellers refuse to sell at that figure, and a considerable amount of barreled oil could be sold at 12@12½. Sale of 1200 bbls, in bulk, at 13; and 200, bbls returned, at 12½. We can also report a sale of one thousand barrels at 21, in Philadelphia, packages included. The demand from all quarters continues light, as buyers, generally, are disposed to hold off in anticipation of lower rates. The receipts are falling off somewhat, but the supply is fully up to the present requirements of the trade.

REFINED—There is still some inquiry for bonded oil both for present and future delivery, but prices are slowly but steadily declining. Sales of 500 bbls for immediate delivery on the cars here, at 33; 1000 bbls for July delivery in Philadelphia, at 39; 1000 for August, buyer's option, at 41½; and 500 for November, same option, at 45. We are cognizant of a New York broker having offered to contract to-day at 40 cents, for immediate delivery in Philadelphia, or 41½ in New York, but whether he is connected with a responsible house or not, we are unable to say. Free Oil is dull and entirely nominal.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil by the Allegheny River since our last report, were as follow:

[illegible] Bushnell	800	Fisher & Bro.	800
[illegible] Oil Co.	500	W. P. Logan	70
Total			2170

New York Produce Market.

New York, June 27.—Cotton steady at 37@38 for middling uplands, chiefly at 38. Flour is rather more steady for medium grades, with only a moderate business, at $7,50@8,50 for extra State, $8,55@10 for extra round hoop Ohio, and $10,05@13,75 for trade brands, and closing quiet. Whisky quiet at $2,27@2,28 for western. Wheat quiet and firm for prime parcels, and dull and heavy for inferior descriptions. Rye quiet, and sales of western at $1,07. Corn has opened a shade firmer, and closed quiet and without decided change at 84@90 for unsound new mixed western, 90@91 for sound do., 97 for western yellow, 79 for damaged New Orleans and 88 for shipping western mixed, to arrive in a few days. Oats more steady and quiet at 60@61 for new western. Coffee dull. Sugar dull. Petroleum dull at 24@25 for crude, and 39@40 for refined, in bond. Pork firmer and more active, at $31,50@31,81 for new mess, closing at $31,50, cash; $29,25@29,50 for old do., and $25,00@25,75 for prime; also, 4,500 bbls new mess at $32,25, buyers' option, ninety days. Beef is steady at $16@21,50 for new plain mess, and $20@21,50 for western. Beef Hams quiet at $35@35,50. Cut meats are firm, at 13@13½ for shoulders and 14@15 for Hams. Bacon is quiet. Lard heavy at 19@22¼. Butter quiet at 25 for Ohio, and 25@40 for State. Cheese dull.

Chicago Cattle Market.

Chicago, June 26.—The fresh receipts of Beef Cattle to-day at the Union Stock Yards are 121 cars. Entered sales 582 head, at prices ranging from $4,65@5,25 for common Cows, Bulls, etc., $5,50@6,50 for light stock Steers, and from $6,50@7,50 for good to choice shipping Steers. The market is dull and languid, at a reduction from 15@25c per 100 lbs. The large receipts this morning and the unfavorable reports from New York, have caused buyers to hold off. From present appearances prices will most assuredly decline for the medium grades if the receipts continue heavy during the remainder of the week. Cows and medium grades of stock Steers are in good request by stockers to-day.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point, with but little over three feet in the channel by the pier marks last evening. We had several heavy showers of rain yesterday, which cooled the atmosphere, if they do not cause a swell in our rivers.

We have no arrivals to record aside from the regular packets. The Forest City arrived and cleared for Parkersburg, and the Bayard is due here from the same point this morning. The Elector and Gallatin cleared for Brownsville and Geneva last evening, and the Fayette and Chieftain leave this evening at five o'clock for the same points.

The Lotus No. 2, for New Orleans, and the R. C. Gray, for St. Louis and St. Paul, cleared last evening. The Lotus had a very good trip, having about all the freight she could take on the water. Among other items, she had a large number of wagons, wheelbarrows, etc., etc., destined for the Sunny South. The Gray, also had a very good trip, and being a very light draught boat, she was enabled to take a large amount of freight on a comparatively low stage of water. She left here with a barge which will be brought back after the Gray gets down below Beaver, from which point down it is reported there is a good stage of water.

The Yorktown, in command of Capt. G. W. Ebbert, and Capt. Standish Peppard in the office, is next on the list for St. Louis, and is now receiving freight for that and all intermediate points. She will soon be ready to take her departure.

The Fayette, Capt. Cox, and the Chieftain, Capt. Abrams, are the regular packets for Brownsville and Geneva this evening, leaving at 5 o'clock.

The Gallatin and Elector backed together last evening, apparently with the intention of testing the speed of the respective boats. The Gallatin, in starting, was about the length of herself ahead of the Elector, which distance she maintained as long as they could be seen from the wharf.

The Leonora No. 2 cleared for Cincinnati last evening, with a moderate trip, although we are of the opinion that she could have taken some more freight on the water if she could have got it.

The following boats were in port at Cincinnati on Monday: Armadillo, Maggie Hays, Shamrock, Navigator, St Cloud, Lady Franklin, Messenger, Nora, Nashville, Champion, Kate Putnam, Annie Laurie, Golden Eagle, and Agnes.

The Louisville Courier of Monday says:

The Kate Robinson, bound for Memphis, descended the falls yesterday.

The towboat Alps yesterday morning achieved the hazardous and very difficult feat of ascending the falls up the Indian chute. She was under the guidance of falls pilot Capt. Pink Varble, who landed her at the upper wharf in exactly forty-eight minutes from the time she started her engines from the foot of Sandy Island, at Portland. With only 3½ feet water in the pass the feat was remarkable and difficult of accomplishment, requiring great steam power and equal skill in piloting.

We learn that Friday night, during the storm, the lightning struck a flouring mill at Carrollton, Ky., in consequence of which it was entirely consumed. It belonged to Messrs. Harper & Sons, of Cincinnati.

The Argonaut No. 2 (says the Cincinnati Gazette) reshipped her Pittsburgh freight on the Nora, and will lay up, as will also the Kate Putnam.

SAVE THYSELF.

A CURE FOR INTEMPERANCE.

Dr. S. Cutter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.

The greatest Nervine ever discovered. The addition, within the last ten years, of Dr. Cutter's Nervine Discovery to the English Bitters, makes it a perfect antidote to intemperance. Previous to his discovery of the Nervine, this medicine was before the English public, celebrated as a Tonic and Alterative, in diseases of the Stomach and of the Bowels, and diseases arising from impedities of the Blood. As a nervine is always the choice of the Stomach, in all persons addicted to the use of stimulants and narcotics, such as alcohol and malt liquors, opium, morphia, arsenic, tobacco, &c., as it removes the morbid appetite, or craving of the stomach for stimulant; in Headache, Neuralgia, and all nervous diseases, it has no equal as a Nervine.

Ten years use of the improved English Bitters in St. Bartholomew's Hospital, St. Mary's Hospital, Newgate and other prisons, has established its reputation, as a cure for intemperance, and gained for it the approval of the attending surgeons in all the hospitals and prisons throughout Great Britain, and is prescribed now by many physicians in private practice, for persons addicted to the use of stimulants and sedatives. In Paralysis, St. Vitus' Dance, Epileptic Fits, Nervous Twitchings, and all Nervous diseases, it has no equal. Wholesale and Retail Agent,

CHOLERA

DISARMED!!!

The Chief Cause of Pestilence Destroyed!

DR. E. COURTARET'S DISINFECTING FLUIDS, secured by Letters Patent in the United States and France. Prepared solely by the New York Disinfecting Company, at their Laboratory, Nos. 298, 300 and 302 Henry Street, N. Y. Office, 42 Cedar Street.

This Company organized on a permanent basis, with Dr. Courtaret, the celebrated French Chemist, in charge of its Laboratory, is prepared to furnish its DISINFECTING FLUIDS for sick rooms, nurseries, urinals, water closets, privies, cesspools, sewers, gutters, ships, railroads, hospitals, prisons, and public institutions of all kinds, slaughter-houses, offal and fat-boiling establishments; all kinds of manures (immensely increasing the value of the latter to every farmer), and wherever poisonous and offensive gases exist. These agents are deodorizers, antiseptics, antiputrescents, and disinfectants in the scientific meaning of the words. They remove noxious gasses and odors by chemical principles—leaving in their places healthful air; they are DESTROYERS, and not merely absorbents of poisonous gases—not injurious to the metals in which they are used. The attention of medical and scientific men is directed to these disinfectants. Attached are testimonials in favor of this great discovery, which, with hundreds of others can be seen at the Company's office.

DELAVAN HOUSE, ALBANY, March 30, 1866.

To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.:

Dear Sir: It is all it is represented to be. We have made many trials of disinfectants, but now consider that we have found an article which surpasses all others as a remedy against all bad odors.

T. ROESSEL & CO.

NEW YORK, April 9, 1866.

To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.:

Dear Sir: We pronounce it, without exception, to be the best we have ever known. Its effect upon every matter is complete and instantaneous.

N. B.—These Disinfectants are used by the scavengers, under the direction of the Sanitary Police of the Metropolitan Health Department, N. Y.
